We received a counter notification (below) in response to a copyright removal request that you submitted. A counter notification is a legal request for YouTube to reinstate a video that was removed due to a copyright removal request.

You have 10 US business days to reply to this counter notification. Your response must include evidence that you've taken legal action against the uploader to keep the content from being reinstated to YouTube. Usually, evidence would include a lawsuit against the uploader, which names the YouTube URL(s) at issue and seeks a court order to restrain the alleged infringement.

Evidence should be submitted by replying directly to this email. Do not send your reply to copyright@youtube.com.

After 10 US business days, if we don't get a response from you, the content at issue may be reinstated to YouTube. You can find more information about the legal action you must take and what evidence is acceptable in our Help Center.

This video is covered under Fair use. Please remove this strike as it is incorrect. It has caused stress on my new family and we used the content in a transformative way in our reaction. Under the 'Fair Use Act' I have exercised my ability to use the content in a transformative way. My use of the content was limited to very short clips (under 30 seconds in length) and to give visual context to viewers as to the basis of my thoughts, and is in no way meant to duplicate or take credit from the creator of the content. I do not see my use of the content as justification for a copyright strike. I look forward to this being resolved. Kind Regards, James Beesley
